

General Mobile Accessibility – Tips & Quick Settings

iPhone Accessibility

1. Open the Settings app on your device and TAP Accessibility

2. Listed are the accessibility features that are built in tools. They range from vision, motor assistance, hearing, speech, accessories, and general.

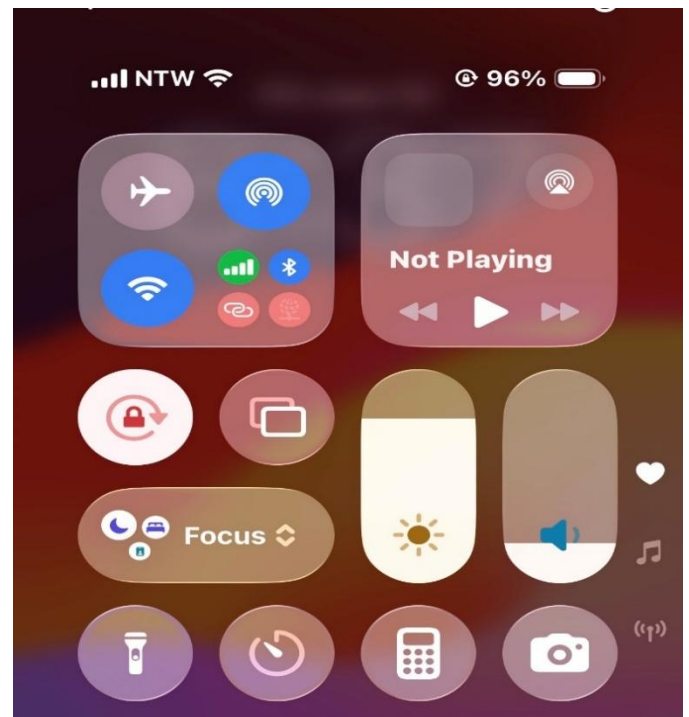

iPhone Quick Settings

1. When you turn on your phone this is the lock screen. Swipe down from the top and it will open quick settings.

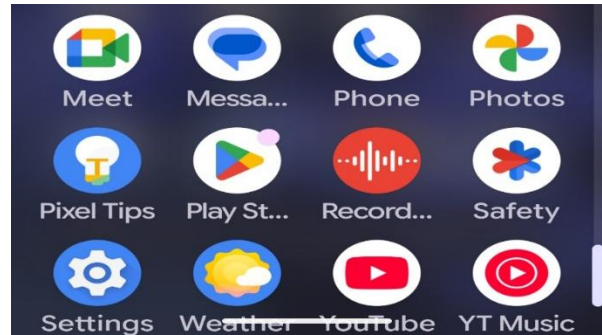

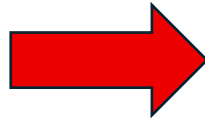

2. The screen controls essential features such as Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, screen brightness, flashlight, and many others for access.

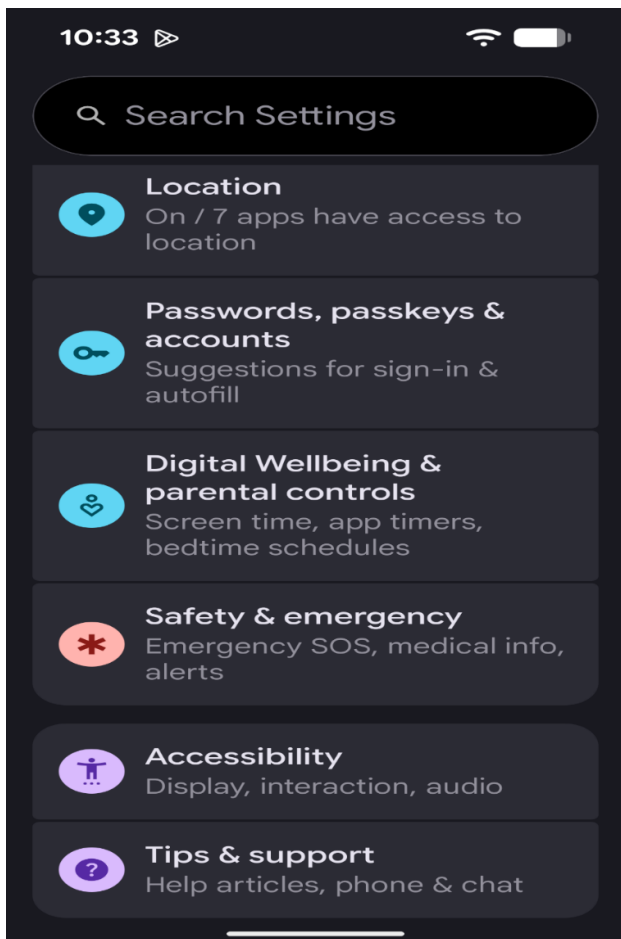

Android Accessibility

1. Locate the settings icon on the home screen. It is a cog wheel shaped icon. Tap it.

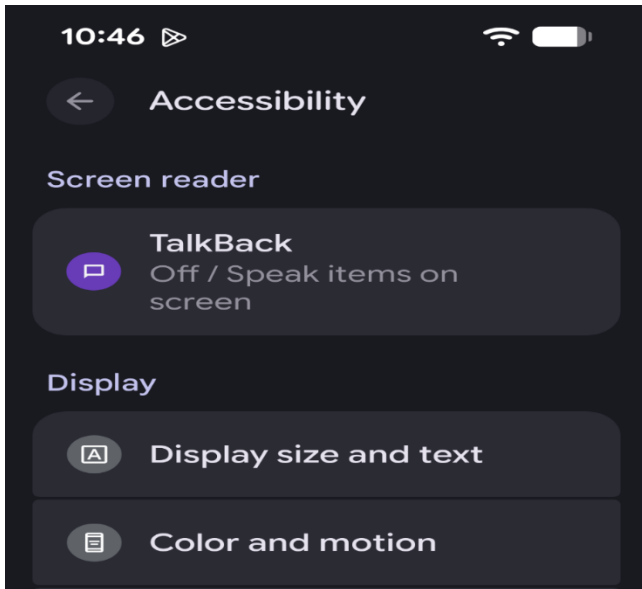

2. Scroll down and tap on the accessibility option.

3. This is the accessibility screen. Listed are features that are built in tools that help remove barriers for users. They range from vision, motor assistance, hearing, speech, accessories, and general.

Android Quick Settings

When you turn on your phone you will swipe down once to open the quick settings screen. The quick settings screen controls essential features such as Wi-Fi, Bluetooth, screen brightness, internet, and others.

