

Acknowledgments

Assistive Technology for Kansans would like to thank everyone who helped create this manual. Many people shared their time, ideas, and expertise, including:

- People with disabilities and their families
- Staff from the agencies listed in this manual
- ATK Access Site staff and subcontractors
- Service providers and other partners

Your information, feedback, editing, and technical help made this manual possible. We know that programs and funding can change, so we will update this manual every year. For the newest version or to print extra copies, please visit our website at www.atk.ku.edu.
